

A little over three years back, when Malayalam movie Gaayam was released, I saw it on the big screen for the first time in 14 years. It's been 16 years since I was in Bangalore. So it was a welcome surprise to come across some of my favourite actors from the Malayalam industry right here in the city which holds a special place in my heart. Niyamashasthram (available on Eros Now): This is a total family-oriented Malayalam movie, much like Kizhakke Pogum Rail Raman. It is considered to be one of the best Malayalam movies of 2016. Ashwin Sharif plays the main role of Mala in this movie, and he is absolutely charming. The movie was directed by Sathyan Anthikkad, whose films like Chathurangam, Dusk, and Aparachithi are among the finest films in the history of Malayalam cinema. Rekha Poochakkal (available on Hotstar): This unique Malayalam movie was released in 2018 with a tagline "This is the reality of Kerala." It is a loosely based on the actual marital relations of the actress, Geethu Mohandas, and her husband Gayathri. It is directed by Aashiq Abu and co-stars Shashikumar, Mohanlal, Prithviraj, and Jackie. After a gap, actress Nazriya Nazim was seen in the movie playing a mute girl called Anjali. It is a Malayalam movie of 2016 directed by Rajesh Pillai, which was based on the lives of college-going friends who have no interest in their studies. The story revolves around Chinnakka, Ash, and Praveen, three friends who happen to work together at a garage. Their friendship gets tested when two of them move to Bangalore to study. Not only they find it difficult to adjust, but also the mindset of their parents changes when they get the chance to earn.
